ACN 634 839 857
 (“Li-S Energy” or “Company”)

2023 CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

This statement has been approved by the Board of the Company on 17 August 2023.

The statement has been prepared as at that date with reference to the 4th Edition of the ASX Corporate Governance Council’s Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations.

The Board of is committed to the principles underpinning good corporate governance applied in a manner which is most suited to the Company. This is supported by an overriding organisation-wide commitment to the highest standards of legislative compliance and financial and ethical behaviour.

The Board of has developed and implemented policies, procedures and practices and has made these publicly available on its website www.lis.energy in a concerted effort to foster a culture of transparency in the way the Company is directed and managed and as a demonstration of its overall commitment to good governance principles.

	Principles and Recommendations	Li-S Energy Compliance/ Departures
Principle 1 — Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
1.1	Have and disclose a board charter which establishes the functions expressly reserved to the Board and those delegated to management and discloses those functions.	The Board has been charged by shareholders with overseeing the affairs of the Company to ensure that they are conducted appropriately and in the interests of all shareholders. The Board defines the strategic goals and objectives of the Company, as well as broad issues of policy and establishes an appropriate framework of corporate governance within which the Board members and management must operate. The Board reviews, monitors and challenges management, holding them to account for the Company’s performance. The Board has also taken responsibility for establishing control and accountability systems/processes and for monitoring senior management performance and implementation of strategy. The roles and responsibilities of the Board are set out in a Board Charter which is available on the ‘Corporate Governance’ section of the Company’s website. Among other things the Board Charter sets out the role and responsibility of the chair of the Board. In the pursuit of its stated goal, the Board is responsible for: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) oversight of the Company, including its control and accountability systems; (b) setting the Company’s major goals including the strategies and financial objectives to be implemented by management; (c) appointing, removing, and controlling the CEO or Managing Director;

	Principles and Recommendations	Li-S Energy Compliance/ Departures
		(d) ratifying the appointment and, where appropriate, the removal of the Chief Financial Officer and/or Company Secretary; (e) input into and final approval of management's development of corporate strategy and performance objectives; (f) reviewing and ratifying systems of risk management and internal compliance and control, codes of conduct, and legal compliance and ensuring that these instil the Company's values; (g) monitoring senior management's performance and implementation of strategy, and ensuring appropriate resources are available; (h) approving and monitoring the progress of major capital expenditure, capital management, acquisitions and divestitures; (i) approving and monitoring financial and other reporting; and (j) corporate governance. The Board currently delegates operational authority to the Chief Executive Officer and his management team who are charged with the day to day running and administration of the Company consistent with the strategic objectives and policies as set down by the Board. Within this framework, the Chief Executive Officer is directly accountable to the Board for the performance of the management team.
1.2	Undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person as a director or senior executive or putting someone forward as a director and provide shareholders with all material information relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	The Company undertakes checks before it appoints a person, or puts forward to shareholders a new candidate for election, as a Director. These checks include references as to the person's character, experience and education. The Company does not propose to check criminal records or the bankruptcy history for potential new Board members, however may consider such checks where necessary or appropriate in the future. Pursuant to the management services agreement in place with PPK Group Limited (ASX:PPK), the Company has access to certain paid third party background screening services where required. The Company will include all material information in its possession relevant to a decision whether or not to elect or re-elect a Director in the relevant notice of meeting including biographical details, relevant qualifications, experience, skills and other material directorships currently held. Information relating to each of the Directors is also provided on the Company's website.

1.3	Have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	The Company has established written agreements with its Non-Executive Directors and each senior executive which set out the terms of their appointment. Directors are not appointed for a fixed term but are, excluding any Managing Director, subject to re-election by shareholders at least every three years in accordance with the Constitution of the Company. A Director appointed to fill a casual vacancy or as an addition to the Board, only holds office until the next annual general meeting of shareholders and must then retire. Prior to their appointment potential directors participate in induction initiatives and are advised of the time commitment envisaged based on scheduled monthly Board meetings and committee involvement as may be required. They are also advised on remuneration entitlements, their right to seek independent legal advice at the expense of the Company (subject to the Chairman's approval) and indemnity and insurance arrangements, and their confidentiality obligations.
1.4	The company secretary should be accountable directly to the Board on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board.	Each Company Secretary has been appointed on the basis that he will be accountable directly to the Board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board. All Directors of the Board have access to the Joint Company Secretaries who are appointed by the Board. Each Company Secretary reports to the Chairman, in particular to matters relating to corporate governance and the day-to-day functioning of the Board.
1.5	Establish a diversity policy and disclose the policy or a summary of that policy. The policy should include requirements for the Board to establish measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and for the Board to assess annually both the objectives and progress in achieving them, for reporting against in each reporting period.	The Company has established a Diversity Policy Statement which is available on the Company's website. The Company is committed to an inclusive workplace that embraces and promotes diversity and believes that the promotion of diversity on its Board and within the organisation generally is good practice. Diversity at the Company refers to all the characteristics that make individuals different from each other. It includes characteristics or factors such as religion, race, ethnicity, language, gender, sexual orientation, disability, age or any other area of potential difference. The Company values the unique contributions made by people with diverse backgrounds, experiences and perspectives, and believes that greater diversity of thought throughout the organisation will lead to more informed decision making and ultimately better business outcomes. The Company's policy is to recruit and manage its employees on the basis of their competence, performance and potential, regardless of the individual's background or points of difference. Diversity at the Company is about the commitment to equality and the treating of all individuals with respect. The Company is committed to promoting a culture of diversity in the workplace by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • recruiting and managing on the basis of an individual's competence and performance; • respecting the unique attributes that each individual brings to the workplace;

	Principles and Recommendations	Li-S Energy Compliance/ Departures
		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • fostering an inclusive and supportive culture to enable people to develop to their full potential; • taking action to prevent and stop bullying, discrimination or harassment; • rewarding and remunerating fairly; • offering flexible work practices which recognise that employees may have different domestic responsibilities throughout their career; and • maintaining policies and procedures to provide employees at all levels of the Company with guidelines for behaviour. The Company's commitment to diversity forms part of the Company's culture dedicated to retaining the best qualified employees, management and Board. The Company's commitment applies in all phases of employee engagement including recruitment, selection, development, promotion, rewards and remuneration. The Board acknowledges the benefits of and will seek to achieve diversity during the process of employment at all levels without detracting from the principal criteria for selection and promotion of people to work within the Company based on merit. Accordingly, the Company has not established measurable objectives or number targets for achieving gender diversity. The Company was not in the S&P ASX 300 Index at the commencement of the reporting period. The Company is not a relevant employer under the Workplace Gender Equality Act. Currently: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • there was one woman on the full Board; • 50% of the special advisory panel were female; and • there was one woman in a senior management position, defined as anyone who reports directly to the CEO or the Board.
1.6	Have a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the Board, its committees and individual directors, and disclose that process and, at the end of each reporting period, whether such performance evaluation was undertaken in that period.	The Board has an established process of self-review and evaluation which involves regular and on-going consideration of all the Board's key areas of responsibility and accountability. Relevant matters considered in the assessment of Board and individual Director performance are set out in detail in the Performance Evaluation Processes available on the Company's website. The Chairman meets periodically with individual Directors to discuss the performance of the Board. In addition, an evaluation is undertaken by the Chairman of the contribution of Directors retiring by rotation prior to the Board endorsing their candidature. This occurred most recently prior to the AGM held in November 2022. The review process involves consideration of all of the Board's key areas of responsibility and accountability and is based on an amalgamation of factors including capability, skill levels, understanding of industry complexities, risks and challenges, and value adding contribution to the overall management of the business. The Board believes that this periodic approach remains appropriate given its size and the nature of the Company's operations.

	Principles and Recommendations	Li-S Energy Compliance/ Departures
1.7	Have a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the company's senior executives at least once every reporting period, and disclose that process and, at the end of each reporting period, whether such performance evaluation was undertaken in that period.	The Board reviews and establishes the Company's performance objectives and measures based on qualitative and quantitative factors. The objectives established become the performance targets for the Chief Executive Officer and senior management. The performance of the Chief Executive Officer is assessed by the full Board against these pre-determined performance objectives. The Chief Executive Officer, in consultation with the Board, establishes the performance objectives of senior management within the Company based on the desired business outcomes. The Chief Executive Officer makes recommendations to the full Board on the remuneration of senior management which are reviewed and approved by the Board. The Board does not believe that the establishment of a formal Remuneration Committee is appropriate or necessary at this time given the size and the nature of the Company's operations, however the Board will continue to assess this as the number of senior management grows. The Board is responsible for approving the performance objectives and measures for the Chief Executive Officer and senior management and assessing whether these objectives have been satisfied. A formal performance evaluation of senior management was undertaken in September 2022. The Board expects to conduct a further performance evaluation in September 2023.
Principle 2 — Structure the Board to be effective and add value
2.1	The Company should have a nomination committee, which has at least three members, a majority of independent directors and is chaired by an independent director. The functions and operations of the nomination committee should be disclosed.	Due to the size of the Company and the number of Board members, the Board does not have a formal nomination committee. New Directors would be selected according to the needs of the Company at that particular time, the composition and the balance of experience on the Board as well as the strategic direction of the Company. As disclosed on 28 July 2023, the Board has elected at this time to add additional complementary skills and expertise pursuant to a newly established advisory panel. Where a vacancy arises or it is considered appropriate to vary the composition of the Board of Directors, the full Board generally participates in any review of the Board's composition and the qualifications and experience of candidates. Directors are selected upon the basis of their specialist skills and business background so as to provide an appropriate mix of skills, perspective and business experience.
2.2	Have and disclose a Board skills matrix, setting out what the Board is looking to achieve in its membership.	The Board will review its composition from time to time taking into account the length of service on the Board, age, skills, qualifications and experience, and in light of the needs and direction of the Company. Under the management services agreement with PPK, the Company has access to board skills matrix tools and materials should these be required. The Board has a broad background of experience in early stage companies, publicly listed companies, capital markets, innovative technologies, business development, finance and accounting, governance and compliance, legal, risk management and commercial expertise.
2.3	Disclose the names of the directors that the Board considers to be independent directors, and an explanation of	The Board is comprised of four Non-Executive Directors. The Directors currently believe it is in the best interests of the Company to maintain a small but efficient Board with at least three Non-Executive Directors.

why the Board is of that opinion if a factor that impacts on independence applies to a director and disclose the length of service of each director.	Matters relevant to a Director's independence are set out in detail in the Independent Director Assessment Policy, a copy of which is available on the Company's website. The Board has resolved that Mr Ben Spincer, Mr Tony McDonald and Ms Hedy Cray are considered to be independent Directors. Details of each Directors experience and length of service can be found on the Company's website and are also are set out on an annual basis in the Directors' Report contained in the Company's Year End Financial Report which is released to the market and posted on the Company's website. Mr Ben Spincer is considered to be independent as the Directors (other than Mr Ben Spincer) consider he is free from any business or other relationship that could materially interfere, or reasonably be perceived to interfere, with the independent exercise of his judgement. Ben has been a Director of Li-S Energy since 18 March 2021. Mr Robin Levison is not considered to be independent as the Directors (other than Mr Robin Levison) consider that the size of his current relevant interests in Li-S Energy and PPK Group Limited and his role as Chairman of PPK Group Limited could materially interfere, or reasonably be perceived to interfere, with the independent exercise of his judgement. PPK Group Limited's wholly owned subsidiary, PPK Aust Pty Ltd, directly holds 45.43% of the total issued shares in the Company. Robin has been a Director of Li-S Energy since 12 July 2019. Mr Tony McDonald is considered to be independent as the Directors (other than Mr Tony McDonald) consider he is free from any business or other relationship that could materially interfere, or reasonably be perceived to interfere, with the independent exercise of his judgement. Although Tony is a director of PPK Group Limited and has relevant interests in PPK Group Limited, he is a Non-Executive Director of PPK Group Limited's board of four directors and does not have power to exercise or control the exercise of PPK Aust Pty Ltd's rights to vote attached to its shares or to dispose of the shares held by PPK Aust Pty Ltd. Both PPK Group Limited and the Company have policies and procedures in place to manage conflicts of interests. Tony has been a Director of Li-S Energy since 12 July 2019. Ms Hedy Cray is considered to be independent as the Directors (other than Ms Hedy Cray) consider she is free from any business or other relationship that could materially interfere, or reasonably be perceived to interfere, with the independent exercise of her judgement. Hedy has been a Director of Li-S Energy since 21 April 2021. The Board observes a number of practices to ensure that independent judgement is applied when considering the business of the Board: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (i) Directors are entitled to seek independent professional advice at the Company's expense. Prior written approval of the Chairman is required but this is not unreasonably withheld. (ii) Directors having a conflict of interest with an item for discussion by the Board must not participate in the consideration of or the vote in respect of that matter.

	Principles and Recommendations	Li-S Energy Compliance/ Departures
		(iii) The Company is currently conducting an audit of all previously disclosed conflicts of interest.
2.4	A majority of the Board should be independent directors	As at 30 June 2023, the Company complies with this recommendation as the Board is comprised of four Directors, three of which are independent Directors.
2.5	The chair of the Board should be an independent director and should not be the Chief Executive Officer.	The Board has resolved that the Chairman Mr Ben Spincer is considered to be an independent Director and accordingly the Company complies with this recommendation.
2.6	There should be a program for inducting new directors and for periodically reviewing whether there is a need for existing directors to undertake appropriate professional development opportunities for directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as a director effectively.	The Company provides new Directors with an induction package including copies of the Board Charter and relevant policies and procedures. Directors are encouraged to pursue appropriate professional development opportunities to develop and maintain their skills and knowledge in order to perform their role as Directors effectively.
Principle 3 — Instil a culture of acting lawfully, ethically and responsibly
3.1	Articulate and disclose the Company's values.	The Board recognises the need to have the highest standards of corporate practice and business conduct. Accordingly, the Board's core values are set out in the Code of Conduct for Directors & Officers and a Code of Conduct & Ethics for all employees as noted in the commentary on recommendation 3.2 below.
3.2	Have a code of conduct for the Board, senior executives and employees, disclose that code or a summary of that code and ensure that the Board or committee of the Board is informed of any material breaches of that code.	The Board has adopted a Code of Conduct for Directors & Officers of the Company to demonstrate the commitment of Directors and senior management to ethical practices and the highest standards of integrity in the fulfilment of their respective roles and responsibilities. It outlines the expectations of the Company's Directors and employees, their legal obligations and responsibility to investigate and report unethical practices. The Board has adopted a Code of Conduct & Ethics which is applicable to all employees and which the Board expects to govern the way in which the Company's employees conduct themselves in the performance of their respective duties and in communicating with the stakeholders of the Company's business. The Code of Conduct for Directors & Officers and the Code of Conduct & Ethics are available on the Company's website. The Board has also developed a Security Trading Policy which governs Director and employee dealing in the Company's securities, the purpose of which is to guide Directors and employees in the performance of their duties and to define the circumstances in which Directors and employees, and their

		respective associates, are permitted to deal in the Company's securities. Although the Company has also adopted a Diversity Policy which seeks to promote diversity amongst the Directors and employees, including gender diversity, the Board does not intend to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity. It is the Board's policy that gender discrimination has no position in the workplace and that men and women must be treated equally and without any discrimination. It is the Board's belief that employment should be on a merit-based system only.
3.3	Have and disclose a whistleblower policy and ensure that the Board or a committee of the Board is informed of any material incidents reported under that policy.	The Board is committed to the establishment and maintenance of appropriate ethical standards and to conducting all of the Company's business activities fairly, honestly with integrity, and in compliance with all applicable laws, rules and regulations. In addition, the Company encourages reporting of actual and suspected violations of the Company's code of conduct or other instances of illegal, unethical or improper conduct. The Board provides effective protection from victimisation or dismissal to those reporting such conduct as set out in its Whistleblower Protection Policy and a copy is available on the Company's website. Any reportable matter can be reported under this policy to the Chairman, the Chief Executive Officer or an immediate supervisor, noting it may depend on the matter and the person who is the subject of the matter. The Board will be informed of any material incidents reported under that policy, subject to the confidentiality provisions of that policy.
3.4	Have and disclose an anti-bribery and corruption policy and ensure that the Board or a committee of the Board is informed of any material breaches of that policy.	The Board is committed to preventing any form of bribery or corruption and to upholding all laws relevant to these issues. The Board has adopted an Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy and a copy is available on Li-S Energy's website. The Board has overall responsibility for ensuring this policy complies with the Company's legal and ethical obligations, and that all personnel comply with it. The Board will be informed of any material incidents reported under this policy and employees are encouraged to raise concerns about any issue or suspicion of malpractice at the earliest possible stage.
Principle 4 — Safeguard the integrity of corporate reports
4.1	The Company should have an audit committee, which consists of only nonexecutive directors, a majority of independent directors, is chaired by an independent chairman who is not chairman of the Board and has at least three members. The functions and operations of the audit committee should be disclosed.	The Board expanded the existing Audit Committee to cover audit and risk in February 2022. A copy of the amended Audit and Risk Committee Charter is available on the Company's website. The Charter sets out in detail the purpose, composition and membership, meeting procedures, roles and responsibilities of the committee and the authorities of the committee. The Audit and Risk Committee is comprised of three members, namely Ms Hedy Cray (Committee Chair), Mr Tony McDonald and Mr Robin Levison. Ms Cray and Mr McDonald are Non-Executive independent Directors. Mr Robin Levison is a Chartered Accountant and is a member of the audit and risk committee for PPK Group Limited. Mr McDonald is the chair of the Audit and Risk Committee for PPK Group Limited. Details relating to the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee and the number of times the committee met throughout the reporting period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings are set out on an annual basis in the Directors Report contained in the Company's Year End

		Financial Report which is released to the market and posted on the Company's website.
4.2	The Board should, before approving financial statements for a financial period, receive a declaration from the Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer that, in their opinion, the financial records have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the Company, formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal controls, operating effectively.	The persons performing the functions of Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer will report in writing to the Board on a yearly and half-yearly basis to confirm that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards; (b) the Company's financial statements are complete and present a true and fair view of the financial condition and performance of the Company; and (c) the above statement is founded on a sound system of internal control and risk management which implements the policies adopted by the Board and that the Company's risk management and internal controls are operating effectively in all material respects.
4.3	The Company should disclose its process to verify the integrity of any periodic corporate report it releases to the market that is not audited or reviewed by an external auditor.	The Board reviews any periodic corporate reports, obtains validation of information it considers necessary and appropriate before releasing it to the market. Validation may include detailed review of management's assessment of information presented and/or independent review by a third party with the appropriate knowledge and expertise.
Principle 5 — Make timely and balanced disclosure
5.1	Have and disclose a written policy for complying with continuous disclosure obligations under the ASX Listing Rules and disclose that policy or a summary of it.	The Board is committed to keeping its shareholders, and the market, fully informed of major developments having an impact on the Company. The Company has a Shareholder Communications and Continuous Disclosure Policy which is available on the Company's website. Comprehensive procedures are in place to identify matters that are likely to have a material effect on the price, or value, of the Company's securities and to ensure those matters are notified to the ASX in accordance with ASX Listing Rule disclosure requirements. Senior management and the Board are responsible for scrutinising events and information to determine whether the disclosure of the information is required in order to maintain the market integrity of the Company's shares listed on the ASX. The Company Secretary is responsible for all communications with the ASX.

5.2	Ensure that its Board receives copies of all material market announcements promptly after they have been made.	All announcements on the ASX Market Announcements Platform are electronically updated to the Company's website and all Directors receive a copy of any announcements.
5.3	Where the Company gives a new and substantive investor or analyst presentation, release a copy of the presentation materials on the ASX Market Announcements Platform ahead of the presentation.	All investor or analyst presentations are approved by the Chief Executive Officer or a Director and provided to the Company Secretary for lodgement on the ASX Market Announcements Platform before a presentation occurs.
Principle 6 — Respect the rights of security holders
6.1	Provide information about the Company and its governance to investors via its website.	Information about the Company and its governance are available on the Company's website. The Company's website provides detailed corporate information and has a specific section relating to corporate governance.
6.2	Design and implement an investor relations program to facilitate effective two-way communication with investors.	The Company recognises the right of shareholders to be informed of matters, in addition to those prescribed by law, which affect their investments in the Company. The Company has a Shareholder Communications and Continuous Disclosure Policy which is available on the Company's website. The Company communicates information to shareholders through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • disclosures to the ASX including Li-S Energy's Annual Report; • notices and explanatory memoranda of Annual General Meetings and other general meetings; • its newsletter and quarterly activities report; and • the Company's website at www.lis.energy It is the Company's communication policy to communicate with shareholders and other stakeholders in an open, regular and timely manner so that the market has sufficient information to make informed investment decisions on the operations and results of the Company. Investors and other stakeholders are invited to subscribe to an email alert facility on the Company's website so that they can receive material announcements which have been released by the Company to the market via an email in a timely manner.

6.3	Disclose the policies and processes in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders.	The Board encourages active participation by shareholders at each Annual General Meeting, or other general meetings of the Company. The Company does not have formal policies or processes in place to facilitate or encourage participation at shareholder meetings. The Company will despatch a notice of meeting and explanatory statement to shareholders in accordance with statutory requirements. In addition, details of any shareholder meeting will be posted on the Company's website. Ordinarily, that notice of meeting will invite shareholders to submit questions in advance of the meeting. At any meeting of shareholders, Shareholders are also encouraged to ask questions in person of the Board in relation to the matters to be considered at such meeting and where appropriate relating to the business and operation of the Company. The Company's auditor will attend the annual general meeting and will be available to answer shareholders' questions.
6.4	Ensure that all substantive resolutions at a meeting of security holders are decided by a poll rather than by a show of hands.	The Board encourages security holders who do not plan to attend a meeting to vote a proxy form online, by email or mail for substantive resolutions. Directors will monitor the response from security holders prior to the closing date for receipt of proxies and will follow up with large shareholders to encourage them to vote. At shareholder meetings, the chair will seek a poll rather than a show of hands to determine to voting outcome.
6.5	Give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the Company and its share registry electronically.	The Company provides shareholders with the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically. The Company encourages shareholders to continue to assess whether their communication preferences remain appropriate.
Principle 7 — Recognise and manage risk
7.1	The Board should have a risk committee which is structured so that it consists of a majority of independent directors, is chaired by an independent director, and has at least three members. The functions and operations of the risk committee should be disclosed.	As noted above, the Board expanded the existing Audit Committee in February 2022 to cover audit and risk. A copy of the amended Audit and Risk Committee Charter is available on the Company's website. Details relating to the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee and the number of times the committee met throughout the reporting period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings are set out on an annual basis in the Directors Report contained in the Company's Year End Financial Report which is released to the market and posted on the Company's website. The Company continues to receive risk management services pursuant to the management services agreement with PPK Group Limited. Mr Fenton has since been promoted to Chief Executive Officer of PPK Group Limited, however he retains executive responsibility for risk. The full Board of the Company maintains overall governance responsibility for risk through its oversight of that committee. The Board previously adopted an update to its Risk Oversight and Management Framework and delegated responsibility for the

		implementation of that framework to the Audit and Risk Committee. A copy of the amended Risk Oversight and Management Framework is available on the Company's website. In accordance with this framework, the Board: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • recognises that effective management of risk is an integral part of good management and vital to the continued growth and success of the Company; • is responsible for the oversight of the Company's risk management and control framework including the development of risk profiles as a part of the overall business and strategic planning process; and • has implemented policies designed to ensure that the Company's risks are identified, analysed, evaluated, monitored, and communicated within the organisation on an on-going basis, and that adequate controls are in place and functioning effectively. The Risk Oversight & Management Framework incorporates the maintenance of appropriate policies, procedures and guidelines which address the Company's operating environment and is utilised by the Board as a means of identifying the: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> (a) strengths, weaknesses, opportunities and threats influencing, or having the potential to influence, the Company's business; and (b) appropriate oversight strategies to implement in respect of the key risk and opportunity factors confronting the Company to avoid or mitigate losses. The Chief Executive Officer has ultimate operational responsibility for control and management of risk and the implementation of avoidance or mitigation measures within the Company and may delegate control of these risks to the appropriate level of management. The Board regularly monitors the operational and financial performance of the Company against budget and other key performance measures. The Board also receives and reviews advice on areas of operational and financial risk and develops strategies, in conjunction with management, to mitigate those risks. Reports are presented to the Board by the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial Officer and relevant senior executives on a regular basis. The reports encompass matters including actual financial performance against budgeted forecasts, technology development, workplace health and safety, legal compliance, corporate governance, strategy, quality assurance and standards, human resources, industry and market information, operational developments and environmental conformance. In addition to formalised written reporting procedures, the Board is regularly briefed by the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial Officer and senior management on emerging or developed trends in market and operational conditions having the potential to impact on the overall performance of the Company.

7.2	The Board or a committee of the Board should review the entity's risk management framework with management at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound and that the entity is operating with due regard to the risk appetite set by the Board and disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether such a review has taken place.	As noted above, the Board previously reviewed the Company's risk management framework and adopted an update to that document in February 2022. A copy of the amended Risk Oversight and Management Framework is available on the Company's website. The Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer review and confirm to the Board that the Company's risk management and internal compliance and control system is operating efficiently and effectively twice annually when half-yearly and year-end financial statements are prepared. The Audit and Risk Committee holds additional ad hoc meetings throughout the year to receive updates from Mr Fenton, the executive responsible for risk pursuant to the management services agreement between the Company and PPK Group Limited.
7.3	Disclose if the Company has an internal audit function, how the function is structured and what role it performs, or if it does not have an internal audit function, that fact and the processes the Company employs for evaluating and continually improving the effectiveness of its governance risk management and internal control processes.	In light of the nature and extent of the Company's operations and activities, the Company has not established a formal internal audit function. The Board continuously reviews the activities of the Company to identify key business and operational risks and has implemented policies and procedures to address such risks and to establish appropriate internal control processes. The Board is provided with regular reporting on the management of operations and the financial condition of the Company aimed at ensuring that risks are identified, assessed and appropriately managed as and when they arise.
7.4	Disclose whether the Company has any material exposure to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks and, if so, how it manages those risks.	The Board manages economic, environmental and social risks that it has identified with the objective of positioning the Company to operate without compromising the health of the ecosystems in which it operates. The Company's approach is also set out in the Environment Policy, which is available on the Company's website. The Board is equally conscious of ensuring that it conducts its business in a manner that meets accepted social norms and needs. Areas of economic risk that have been identified by Li-S Energy include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • research and development risk relating to innovative technologies; • commercialisation of new technologies; • current and potential competitors in a rapidly changing environment; • manufacturing limitations and constraints; • marketing and demand for new products; • domestic and international economic conditions; • material and sustained interest rate and foreign exchange fluctuations;

		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • retention of technical and management skill and up to date technology; and • asset protection including intellectual property. The Board does not otherwise believe that the Company has a material exposure to environmental or social risks. The Company promotes the highest ethical and professional standards. As a company with a reputation for fair and responsible dealing with stakeholders (including security holders, research institutions, customers, employees and government regulatory authorities) the Board demands that the highest standard of ethical behaviour be maintained and fostered throughout the Company. The Company requires a culture and system of compliance and accountability to be maintained throughout the Company and for all employees to take pride in this underlying ethical basis of the Company, acting legally and responsibly in all matters. The Company seeks to comply with the spirit as well as the letter of all applicable laws and regulations (both domestic and foreign) and where appropriate evaluate actions in a broader social context while still conducting its businesses in an efficient, well-ordered and systematic manner, giving due consideration to the goal of maximising returns for its shareholders. The Company is pleased to release its second Sustainability Report for the year ending 30 June 2023, which it anticipates will shortly be made available through its website.
Principle 8 — Remunerate fairly and responsibly
8.1	The Board should have a remuneration committee which is structured so that it consists of a majority of independent directors, is chaired by an independent director, and has at least three members. The functions and operations of the remuneration committee should be disclosed.	The Board has not established a formal remuneration committee as the Company initially has a small number of employees and remuneration matters relating to executive Directors, the Chief Executive Officer and senior management are considered and determined by the full Board where appropriate. Where necessary, the Chair will seek independent advice from external remuneration consultants. The Board will continue to assess this position as the headcount of the Company grows.
8.2	The policies and practices regarding the remuneration of Non-Executive directors, and the remuneration of executive directors and other senior executives, should be separately disclosed.	The aggregate remuneration pool of Non-Executive Directors is set at $800,000. Individual Directors' remuneration is determined by the Board within the approved aggregate total. In determining the appropriate level of Director's fees, data from surveys undertaken of other public companies similar in size or market section to the Company and input and advice from an independent external remuneration consultant are taken into account. Non-Executive Directors of the Company are: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • not entitled to participate in performance-based remuneration practices unless approved by shareholders; and • currently remunerated by means of the payment of Service Rights in lieu of cash benefits in the form of Directors' fees. The Company may remunerate Non-Executive Directors for past performance undertaken or for future service by the granting of
